Capital Partners Acquires Kaseman LLC

Washington, DC - June 10, 2008. DC Capital Partners LLC ("DC Capital") announced today that it has completed the acquisition of Kaseman LLC ("Kaseman").

Kaseman, headquartered in Chantilly, Virginia, is a leading provider of mission critical operational support to key federal government agencies including but not limited to, the Department of State and the Transportation Security Administration. In general, the company's services encompass four areas; (i) anti-terrorism, counter-terrorism, and counter-narcotics training, (ii), technical security advisory and assessment services, and risk analysis, (iii) engineering and construction management, facilities operations and maintenance, and (iv) systems engineering.

"Kaseman will be the center piece of a new platform, Elite Training and Security, LLC, established by DC Capital to focus on training, security and logistics services," said Thomas J. Campbell, President of DC Capital. "The acquisition of Kaseman is consistent with our focus on investing in companies with talented management and employees that have mission critical capabilities and exceptional reputations within their customer community. Kaseman has an excellent reputation for providing high-quality mission critical services to key U.S. government agencies. I am delighted to have Kaseman join the DC Capital family of companies."

Dave Kaseman, Founder and CEO of Kaseman, said, "Partnering with DC Capital will significantly benefit our customers, business partners, and employees. With access to greater resources, we will be better positioned to respond to our customers' specialized, and rapidly expanding, requirements. DC Capital shares our commitment to providing the highest quality services to our customers with the highest level of integrity and ethics. I strongly believe this combination strategically positions Kaseman to continue our track record of success while at the same time provides our employees with enhanced opportunities for professional growth."
