DC Capital Partners Enhances NISC's Information Technology Capabilities with the Acquisition of Information Manufacturing Corporation

Washington, DC - December 11, 2007. National Interest Security Company, LLC ("NISC"), a company controlled by DC Capital Partners, LLC, announced today the acquisition of Information Manufacturing Corporation ("IMC").

IMC, with primary offices in Rocket Center, WV and Fairfax, VA, is a leading provider of a wide range of information technology and knowledge management services to the intelligence community, the Department of Defense ("DoD"), and other federal agencies. IMC's capabilities cover the full continuum of information management services including integrated data capture, convergence, manipulation, mining, exploitation, delivery, and storage systems and solutions.

"IMC's unique service offerings will greatly enhance NISC's existing capabilities, particularly in the DoD and the intelligence community. Their ability to convert large repositories of data from a wide variety of media and transform it into manageable, accessible and actionable forms of information in a secure setting is a crucial function in today's environment," said Thomas J. Campbell, Chairman of NISC and President of DC Capital Partners. "IMC's management and employees are first rate. We are extremely pleased to have them as part of the NISC family."

"IMC is a critical partner to its government customers in enabling the transformation of government in how it captures, stores, utilizes, and accesses mission critical data," said Robert Hytner, President of IMC. "Our partnership with NISC will enhance our capabilities and allow us to expand our customer base."

Headquartered in Fairfax, Virginia, NISC is a leading provider of information technology, information management, and management technology consulting services to the U.S. intelligence community and other government agencies, including but not limited to, the Department of Defense, Department of Homeland Security and Department of Energy. NISC has approximately 850 professionals, of which more than 55% hold security clearances with more than 60% of those at the TS/SCI level and higher.

DC Capital Partners, LLC, is a private equity firm with offices in Washington, DC, and Alexandria, VA, focused on investing primarily in the defense and government sector.
